

Louise McCants

Louise McCants is a proud graduate of Delaware State University. She worked in corporate America for the beginning of her career until she felt a calling to work with children. She currently works for the Children's Home Society as the Director of School Based Services. She has been an educator for the past 20 years, working to encourage students to dream big in her hometown of Trenton, NJ. Louise is a natural motivator and offers daily inspiration on her Float_On_Tips on Instagram. Working in YBC is a great way to give students and others a forum to encourage one another.
